GLASGOW
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

GLASGOW CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HAS BEEN THE VOICE OF GLASGOW BUSINESS SINCE 1783

Who we are

One of the oldest English language speaking Chambers globally and an accredited member of the British Chambers of Commerce, Glasgow Chamber of Commerce is at the heart of one of the UK's largest and most successful city regions.

We are here to support our members and to champion our city.

Our work focuses on the core themes of profile and association, business services, skills and employment, sustainability, policy representation, international trade, and innovation.

MEMBERSHIP

EVENTS

Connect with fellow businesses through our suite of city leading events.

From speed networking and women's lunches to our flagship Glasgow Talks series with business leaders, members receive a discount across our extensive programme.

The Glasgow Business Awards

The Glasgow Business Awards is firmly established as the leading awards ceremony for Glasgow business and has been a highlight of the city's calendar for 25 years. Attracting high profile industry support and involvement, the Awards offer Glasgow businesses the opportunity to promote major achievements and celebrate success.

City Mega Events

Glasgow Chamber is at the heart of the city's mega events; previously playing a key role within the 2014 Commonwealth Games, COP26 and the 2023 UCI Cycling World Championships. Working with Team Glasgow partners, Glasgow Chamber is perfectly placed to unlock access for our members to these globally significant events.

SKILLS AND EMPLOYMENT

Glasgow Chamber supports members to build a skilled, diverse and inclusive workforce.

We offer a range of services including recruitment initiatives, placement programmes to develop your business, and skills and talent development support, all underpinned by the Glasgow Employment and Skills Board. Glasgow Chamber helps businesses find the right opportunities to develop the workforce of tomorrow and future proof their business today.

Developing the Young Workforce Glasgow

DYW Glasgow fosters links between industry, third sector and education to help businesses build a talent pipeline for the future and strengthen relationships with local communities.

Whether its working directly with schools, supporting mentoring, promoting apprenticeships or helping with funding, DYW Glasgow can support and guide your business through the process.

Annually, DYW Glasgow creates over 800 employer opportunities and sees more than 10,000 engagements taken up by young people.

Jacqueline Dobson, President, Barrhead Travel Service Ltd

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

Glasgow Chamber has been delivering training and development programmes for over 30 years. We continue to build on a successful track record by working closely with our training partners to ensure that we bring you the most advanced thinking in the learning and development arena.

Our training and development solutions cover a variety of areas, including open programmes, tailored programmes, international trade training, "How To..." workshops and the Rising Stars Leadership Development Programme.

Many of our courses are accredited and can also count toward your continuous personal development record (CPD).

By booking through our members' portal, members will receive reduced rates across our programmes.

CLIMATE CHAMBER

Climate Chamber is our green and circular movement designed to ensure a COP26 legacy and a sustainable transition to net zero for Glasgow. We stimulate knowledge transfer and encourage ongoing climate action conversations on a global and local scale.

Circular Glasgow

Circular Glasgow inspires businesses of all sizes to innovate and future-proof by adopting circular economy strategies. Connecting companies across the city, Circular Glasgow helps them to open up new revenue streams and increase their competitive advantage.

We developed our Circular Glasgow Network, a growing group of 350+ individuals who collaborate, build and share their knowledge of a circular economy.

Congress of Business

Themed around the Glasgow Climate Pacts established at COP26, Congress of Business (COB) drives and inspires action in the global transition to net zero.

Recognising the key leadership role of businesses and cities in achieving net zero, COB enables a shift from strategies to practical climate action through peer-to-peer learning and investment.
